The quality of service was excellent and my expectations were fully met. The Clarity workshop was great. I think I now have a very good understanding of Clarity's Author Plus and how a lot of new materials can be used with it in teaching military English.

I must admit that I haven't been keeping up with the latest technological developments in education, and it was wonderful to see that so much of what I do manually (and in a very time-consuming way) can be done online now, so that I can have more time to interact with the students in a more meaningful, productive way. I'm very excited about the possibilities - and plan to put one of my own full-year ESL curriculum into the Author Plus format this summer.

The software is very strong in the area of tracking and assessment. Once the teacher has created the tests that they want to use, each student can carry out the tests and a score is given and recorded in Results Manager. Teachers can create groups and students' results can be reported on. The software could be used to support a range of different assessment policies and may even go some way to help standardise assessment across departments.

We are using Author Plus in our self access centres to adapt our teaching material for self-directed learning purposes. I have found that Author Plus enables teachers to save time while creating that personal touch that helps motivate learners.

Thanks for all your help. I couldn't have run into more helpful, kind and patient people to help me through this project. I have no doubts about that. And Author Plus is really first-rate. There really isn't anything better out there.
