

Phrasal Verb Meanings

Match a phrasal verb on the gameboard with a suitable meaning in the list call round, shut up, break up, muddle up, make up, break up, warm up, warm up, put towards, muddle up, warm up, hurry up, make up, muddle up, die away, warm up, flick through, get together, break up, get together, form a group or meeting, call round, shut up, warm up, prepare physically to do sport, make up, put towards, show up, get together, hurry up, call round, reveal, flick through, shut up, muddle up, call round, stop speaking, get together, make up, die away, visit someone casually, put towards, muddle up

be quick
cease to exist
contribute create disrupt divide
form a group or meeting prepare physically to do sport read quickly
reveal
stop speaking
visit someone casually

A-Z of Particles prepare physically to do sport Select

Director of Studies Oxford English Centre, Oxford UK

I thought you might like to know that Hex and Trix have been extremely popular in self access as well as in the classroom and students are coming in to the Self Access Centre to play for 15 minutes in the morning before class!